

Sales & Marketing Manager

We are a small bicycle accessory startup located in Berlin. We aim to design smart products for urban commuters. We have our first product range almost finalized and ready to hit the market.

Are you into cycling?

What you bring to the table:

1. Highly motivated with a “relationship builder” mindset;
2. Strong commercial sense and effective communication skills;
3. A minimum of 2 to 3 years experience in sales, project management and/or support;
4. Cold calling and sales follow up techniques;
5. Ability to handle multiple projects with minimal direction;
6. Willingness to work flexible hours (incl. evenings);
7. Fluent German and English.

Bonus points for:

1. You're already an active and passionate cyclist;
2. You are custom to the bicycle market;
3. You have a laptop of your own;
4. Living in or near Berlin.

What we offer you:

1. Being part of a great startup adventure;
2. A friendly environment in a coworking space with a bunch of other startups;
3. Flexible working hours

If that's you, feel free to contact us at info@otekbicycles.com
