

ENTREPRENEUR IN RESIDENCE INTERN

You will start in one of Berlin's hottest early stage health-tech startups with a social impact. As ENTREPRENEUR IN RESIDENCE you will work closely with the Founding Team. This enables you to learn directly from the founders and take over responsibility in a great and inspiring work environment.

ABOUT US: Pflegista is the online job platform for nurses and care takers that turns the application process upside down by making the hiring companies apply to candidates who are vetted by Pflegista.

YOUR MISSION

- Outgrow yourself: You help us build and grow our new business successfully by identifying new concepts and strategies and implement them from the beginning
- Optimise and Innovate: Work in all disciplines of an early stage startup from marketing, sales, hands-on operational tasks, research, data analysis to process development

YOUR PROFILE

- All-round Talent: You can handle multiple tasks, switch priorities and focus as needed
- Hands-on: You have a hands-on mentality with strong analytical and communication skills
- Open-minded: You have an open and professional approach towards people and new situations
- Efficient: You can easily work in an independent, structured and goal-oriented manner
- Enthusiastic: You steadily want to deepen your expertise and broaden your knowledge
- You are fluent in German or English

OUR PITCH

- Join the best team ever
- Be a part of the journey: early stage startup with a social impact
- Office Space in the creative environment of the startup Incubator Berlin shared with many other start-ups and founders with diverse backgrounds
- Flexible working hours and structures
- Team and networking events, table-tennis, unlimited coffee and after-work beer is included
- And one of the best is yet to come: prospect of full-time job or working student position.

WANNA START? Send your application to Matti via team@pflegista.de